

Lael A. Harrison
Attorney

907.523.6140
907.586.8090 fax

lharrison@faulknerbanfield.com

Profile

Ms. Harrison was born and raised in Juneau, Alaska and graduated from Juneau Douglas High School in 1999. Before joining Faulkner Banfield in 2009, she clerked for Chief Justice Walter Carpeneti on the Alaska Supreme Court. Ms. Harrison is a member of the Alaska Bar Association and is working actively in all areas of Faulkner Banfield's practice, including education law, employment law, contract law, small business law, real property law, and litigation.

Ms. Harrison was trained in mediation at the University of Washington School of Law's clinical mediation training program. She is a contract mediator with the Alaska Court System and is available for private mediations.

Professional Associations and Public Service

Ms. Harrison is a member of the National School Boards Association Council of School Attorneys and a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution section of the Alaska Bar Association.

Lael is a member of the Board of Directors of the Glory Hole soup kitchen and homeless shelter. She also plays violin with the Juneau Symphony.

Admitted to Practice

Alaska State Courts, 2008

US District Court District of Alaska,
2008

US Court of Appeals for the Ninth
Circuit, 2010

Education

J.D., University of Washington
School of Law, 2008

Order of the Coif

Editorial Board Member, Washington Law Review, 2007-2008

B.A. Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations, Cum Laude and with Distinction, 2003, Yale University

Speaks and writes Spanish